

LINKING LIBERATION STRUGGLES

Pursuing global awareness and civic engagement

Monday, October 24
6:00 - 8:30 PM

North Carolina Central University

Location
Auditorium
Miller Morgan Health Building
North Carolina Central University
528 Nelson Street
Parking nearby

"The arc of the moral universe is long, but bends towards justice." Martin Luther King, Jr.

Hosted by

NC Central University's

College of Arts & Sciences

College of Behavioral & Social Sciences

School of Law

Sponsored by

Abrahamic Initiative on the Middle East (AIME)

together with faith and social justice partners

PANELISTS

Dr. Benjamin Frey, Native American faculty, Department of American Studies, UNC-CH

Jillian Johnson, African American Member activist and member of the Durham City Council

Dr. Burhan Ghanayem, Palestinian American, Chair, Bd. Trustees, Muslim Am. Pub. Affairs Council

Respondent voices from the Latino, Jewish, Immigrant & Palestinian Muslim communities

CO-MODERATORS

Rev. Dr. Paul McAllister, Founder Global Leaders In Unity and Evolvment

Dr. Omid Safi, Director Duke Islamic Studies Center

A word cloud of terms related to social justice and oppression. The words are arranged in a roughly rectangular shape, with some words oriented vertically. The terms include: misinformation, power domination, economic deprivation, threat to identity and culture, disfiguring narratives, denial of due process, dehumanization, violence, exploitation, extra-judicial executions, diversion of resources, bantustans, segregation, apartheid, racism, confiscation of land, displacement, dispossession, incarceration, and restriction of movement.

For more information on the forum, partners, panelists, and background material, go to www.aimeproject.org

