

PALESTINE IS HERE

A talk with investigative researcher and Director of Researching the American-Israeli Alliance, Eran Efrati

Since 2002, thousands of US law enforcement officials have trained with Israeli military forces in the context of "War on Terror," learning about Israeli methods and technologies of surveillance, racial profiling, and suppression of protest.

Why are US Police departments training with occupying Israeli forces? How do we resist the militarization of police and the criminalization of citizens and immigrants?
